VISITORS AT CITY HALL

There Was a Variety in the Jail Saturday Night.

ONE MAN TOOK PLAIN ALCOHOL

While on His Way to Get a Prescription Filled, While the Others Contented Themselves With a Hotter Fluid—An Irishman Who Boarded Not Wisely, but Too Long, in One Place—The Jail Empty Again This Morning.

When the NEWS REVIEW predicted last week that the drouth at city hall would be followed by an overflow it prophesied correctly. The empty cells welcomed more than half a dozen deluded victims of alcoholic tendencies, and the treasury will be enriched to no little extent.

Andy Bricelin and William Maley were among the first to come under the keen eyes of the ever vigilant force, although it isn't their fault that the public is now aware of their escapade. They very thoughtfully had their true names erased from the slips containing the charges and the cognomens of an imaginary Andy Skelly and William Manning substituted; but the eraser was not as new as the furniture at city hall, and it left traces of the proper names in a manner calculated to cause a reportorial investigation. The whole cause of the trouble was a few words between Henry Moutz and Bricelin. They did not use language of the most genteel sort, and the Midway, where the racket occurred, was soon filled to overflowing, so lamblake were their demonstrations. When the crowd became too large for comfort and the pressure threatened the destruction of the buildings on Sixth street opposite the alley, Moutz took his departure without waiting to order his carriage. Officer Supplee's grasp upon Bricelin was sufficient to let him know that a room was all ready for his use at city hall and on account of too much atmosphere Maley accompanied him. Maley wasn't fighting but he was too much interested to be a mere spectator. He was proclaiming his intention of standing by Bricelin even if a brick block fell two miles away. He told Officer Wyman who nabbed him that Bricelin was a cousin and he didn't think it was fair to arrest anybody who stood by his relatives. He further said he came from the same part of the county as the officer and wanted him to remember the days when they played shinny and ate each other's molasses candy. But the officer couldn't remember any such happening and William walked into the city jail. Moutz made his escape, but will probably interview Mayor Gilbert today. Bricelin paid $7.60, and Maley donated $6.60 for the community's welfare.

Phillip Bobb is a glass worker in many more senses of the term than one. He operated so many glasses Saturday night that when the time arrived to attend the theater he was barely able to climb the steps. Officer Welch observed Phillip's Saturday evening condition and said the show would not be bankrupt without his attendance. Although Phillip saw several times one officer of the law, he attempted to argue the question. That was where he made a serious mistake. He went down stairs much more rapidly than he had ascended, and was soon presented with a cute little patrol wagon fitted up for his especial comfort. Officer Wyman assisted Phillip to enter the carriage and Patrolman Meador gave him a swift ride to city hall. He was called on to open a bank account to the amount of $5.00, and looked lovingly at his gold watch as he laid it on the mayor's desk and said he would call with his valet to settle the bill this morning.

Bobb was on hand as promised and paid his fine under numerous protests. No Saturday night benefit at city hall would be complete without the presence of Dan Cochran, and he was on hand promptly at midnight. Officer Badgeley found him in the Diamond where he was describing half moons and triangles on the nice, clean sidewalks and objecting to the use of the street by the general public. He had visions of the Canton workhouse, as there is a mountain called "seven-sixty" between him and liberty.

This morning Cochran was released, his employer going security for the amount. A man named Ballantyne, who has seen a half century's trials and tribulations, was on the list at city hall yesterday. For the sake of variety he decided to procure a jag if he must be arrested. He has been waiting on his son-in-law, who is ill at the lower end of Fourth street, and was entrusted with the care of a prescription for the sick man. When he left the house he persuaded about a quart of alcohol to accompany him. The alcohol was for use in the sick room, but Ballantyne soon caused it to assume a condition similar to the one for whom it was intended. Then he secured in some mysterious manner a half pint of whiskey from one of the law abiding saloon keepers who populate East Liverpool. He didn't know whether he had a prescription or an almanac when he arrived at the drug store, but had a faint recollection of being sent for medicine. He got it and started back, being unable to find the prescription but using his own judgment in the matter. On the way homeward he met a gentleman named Gill whom he recognized as a candidate for sheriff, but thought as it was Sunday he wouldn't talk politics. This decision was unnecessary as the chief did not mention the subject but was so agreeable as to discuss other topics and lead the way to the brick building at the corner of Third and Market streets. There Mr. Ballantyne was surprised to find Officer Wyman with the keys to the jail door, and remembered that he had to hurry back with the medicine. He was prevailed upon to stay awhile, and to save his clothes from the strain of a heavy burden was relieved of a knife, pocketbook containing nine cents, and a half pint bottle which had been interviewed on so many occasions that it looked weary. He could not understand how it got in his pocket, and was certain there was behind it a deep laid plot to ruin his reputation. He was provided with a cell and slumbered in one of the solid mahogany folding beds until aroused by a neighbor who wanted the prescription or medicine. He got the prescription, and the prisoner was released to appear today.

William Moriarty was evidently imbued with the idea that boarding house proprietors run their places for exercise alone when he left a two weeks board bill at W. E. Finney's in the East End. He has since been located in Wellsville and remembered his indebtedness when Officer Marshall tapped him on the shoulder and whispered a few words in his ear Saturday night. He was taken in charge by Officer Supplee later and landed in jail here. He was the only person beside Dan Cochran when the usual prayer and praise services were held at city hall yesterday afternoon. As William's name didn't give him away he told everybody he was an Irishman and was from East Liverpool. He will visit in Lisbon this week, and may spend a month at the county seat. His fine and costs amounted to $16.05 and Mayor Gilbert decided to sentence him to the county jail.

Two of a Kind.

In Squire Manley's court this morning the forcible detention case of Sears Shay versus James Haught was tried to a jury composed of John Hull, George Thomas, Michael McKinnon, Thomas Creighton, Benjamin Little, Smith Fowler was the sixth man but could not be present. Colonel Hill represented the plaintiff and F. E. Grosshans the defendant. Nine witnesses were examined and at 12:30 the jury returned a verdict for Shay and ordering Haught to leave his present place of abode. Margaret Fox entered suit in Squire Manley's court this morning against Albert Clark for forcible detention of a house in Huston addition. Hearing at 9 o'clock Thursday morning.

A Mill in the Office.

Two employees of a well known livery stable were sparring in the office without gloves on Saturday night when one struck a harder blow than the untrained temper of the other could stand. In a moment fists were flying through the air, and as fine a mill as ever seen in town was in progress. One combatant finally caught his opponent by the breast, and raising him high in the air would have punished him severely but for the intervention of the proprietor, who chanced to step in. Both have spots which will not permit the memory of the battle to fade for a day or two.

A Boulder Dropped.

A pebble weighing in the neighborhood of two tons fell from the cliff along the Wellsville road yesterday, and struck the street car track near Walker. After making a dent in the track it gracefully rolled to the side of the road where it can still be seen. The motormen are thankful that no cars were near when the rock rolled, but can not help believing there are others on the hill side that may decide to move at any time.

Sawed His Hand.

Harvey Plankinton, of Sixth street, was dissecting a quarter of beef this morning, when the saw slipped and cut a gash in his hand. The wound was a bad one, and required two stitches to repair the damage.

BARBERS IN DANGER

Not Safe to Expose a Blacklist to View.

AN EXPERT OPINION GIVEN

One Lawyer Says That They Can Have a Blacklist, but They Must Keep It To Themselves—Another Advises That It Is Dangerous to Hang It Up.

It is possible that the barbers who have exposed the blacklist for the inspection of the public will have an opportunity to answer for the rash act in court.

Some persons, whose names are on the list, were highly indignant when they heard of the move of their creditors, and it was freely stated on Saturday afternoon that suits might result. An able attorney was questioned by the NEWS REVIEW, and he gave the opinion that the barbers were safe in having a blacklist so long as they refrained from showing it to any person not in the business of barbering. The minute it was given to the public they came under the law, and could be made to pay the penalty in the recovery of damages. Some barbers knew this, and refrained from hanging the list in their shops.

Another prominent attorney who investigated the law gave as his opinion that there was no special statute governing the matter, but he would advise the barbers to keep those lists off the wall, as it is dangerous, to say the least.

Captured the Peeper.

When Officers Wyman and Supplee were walking in the neighborhood of Franklin street on Saturday night they spied the individual who has been annoying residents by peeping in the windows. The fellow ran and one of the officers went after him, Officer Wyman following him to Bauman's saloon on Sixth street. When the officer entered the man was about to drink, but after he had swallowed the beer he was accused of "peeping." After a firm denial he acknowledged, and promised never to do it again. Officer Wyman advising him that a loaded shot gun was awaiting a repetition of the offense, and he would hate to see the fellow's head scattered over the ground.

Presented With a Cane.

On the evening of March 8 Rev. J. N. Swan was made the recipient of a valuable gold headed cane, the officers and members of the Island Creek church wishing to show some token of respect and appreciation of his valuable volunteer services during the early part of the winter as well as some pastoral work in the congregation. Beautifully engraved on the cane are the words "presented to Rev. J. N. Swan by the officers of the Island Creek church." Rev. J. P. Leyenberger made the presentation speech. The audience was large.

Officer Supplee Wants a Name.

Officer Supplee got a letter this morning of three and one-half pages, and read enough of it to know that the writer wanted him to investigate some sidewalk obstructions. Prompted by a desire to know who took this method of addressing him, the officer glanced at the ending, and finding no name, threw the letter into a waste basket. He wants the public to know that he has no dealings with men who are afraid to sign their names, and will pay no attention to anonymous communications.

Charged With Forgery.

A piano tuner named Lewton was arrested in Wellsville last Saturday evening, and locked up until this morning when Marshall Sayer came from Coshocton and took him to that place today. He is charged with forgery, but the exact nature of the crime is unknown. Lewton operated extensively in this city, and was well known among people who have employed him. He was here for some time, but traveled through the surrounding country when trade was dull in town.

Delaney Won.

A crowd of East Liverpool people went to Wellsville on Saturday night for the purpose of seeing Delaney, the skater, beat Morrow in a race of one mile. Delaney was in good condition, and made a splendid appearance as he rolled around the rink, keeping just far enough from his opponent to make him believe that he had a winning chance. When the last lap was ended Delaney was a half ahead of Morrow who seemed to be skating his best. The race was for $25.

Someone Broke the Law.

The attention of a NEWS REVIEW reporter was called on Saturday evening to three boys from this city boarding a car for Wellsville. Each was about 17 years old, and had been drinking so much that he was under the influence of liquor. From remarks made by the trio it was evident that they feared some one would recognize them in town, and they were going to Wellsville for more. They returned on one of the late cars in about the same condition. Who broke the law?

Raised the Pacific.

Two boats with a large number of men worked on the Pacific all of yesterday, and toward evening succeeded in raising the damaged craft. She is being pumped out today and will be taken to Pittsburgh tonight. The damage is greater than was expected. A steam shovel with a host of men worked yesterday removing the cargo of the barges sunk by the Onward at Walkers. The barges were floated last night, and found to be damaged but little. There is but slight loss on the cargo.

May Build in July.

The Laughlin pottery management is patiently waiting for the city and the street railway company to come to terms so that the ground on the river front now occupied by the electric line can be filled with the proposed kilns. There will be no controversy with the company so far as the pottery is concerned, but the plans, it is understood, will be disarranged, if the ground is not vacant in July. Council should not delay an improvement.

Formed a Scale.

A special from Trenton last night says: "The sanitary pottery operatives of the United States met here today in the potters' national headquarters and formulated a new constitution and by-laws for the Operatives' Protective association formed last week. The new constitution obliterates the individual contract system, fixes a uniform scale of wages and prohibits manufacturers from taking on more apprentices."

Captured in Rochester.

Early yesterday morning two boys named Croxall and Hayden decided that home no longer held any attractions for them, and decided to run away. Charles Hayden and Thomas Croxall, fathers of the pair, discovered that they had gone east, and telegraphed the chief of police at Rochester to detain them should they come to that place. This morning word came that the runaways had been captured, and Mr. Croxall went after them.

Must Cage the Chickens.

East End people have been so annoyed with chickens running at large that complaint was made at the mayor's office this morning. Mayor Gilbert decided that scratching chickens were a nuisance, and ordered that as no charge had been made he could do nothing but warn W. E. Finney and Mr. Prudence that they must cage their chickens, or suffer the consequences.

A Burglar, Perhaps.

When Mrs. John Anderson, residing on Broadway, stepped into the hall from her room on Saturday night she discovered a well-dressed young man crouching at the top of the stairs. She thought for a moment it was one of the family, but finding her error, ordered the fellow out of the house. He walked quietly away until the alley was reached, and then he ran.

Republicans Meet Tonight.

The Republican central committee will meet tonight at city hall and every member is expected to be present. The lists will close at 8 o'clock this evening, but as yet the roll is not complete. Among the most important declarations filed today is that of Oliver Vodrey for council in the First ward.

Will Go to Missouri.

Mrs. J. D. West, whose son Harry is lying at the point of death in Kansas City, Mo., will leave tomorrow for that city, although the latest news, a telegram received last night, said that he had rallied from his sinking spell. Mr. West has been with his son several weeks.

A Quiet Wedding.

Mr. James Price and Miss Eliza Robinson were quietly married last evening at the parsonage of the First Methodist Episcopal church by Doctor Huston. For the present they will reside at the home of the bride's parents, the Hilbert House.

Bunched the Cars.

When Motorman Stodgill attempted to move his car off the Sixth street switch he found that the armature was locked. Before the defect could be repaired cars were bunched, and traffic delayed.

BURNED TO A CRISP

The Awful Death of Mrs. Ellen B. Layden.

A CAN OF ALCOHOL FLASHED

And the Nurse Was Enveloped in the Destroying Flame—Fearing to Alarm Her Patient, She Ran Into the Yard and Found Help—She Was the Widow of the Man Who Founded the Potters' Brotherhood.

When Mrs. Ellen B. Layden was heating a can of alcohol late Saturday afternoon the liquid took fire, and today a burned and blackened corpse lies in a Lincoln avenue home, while sorrowing friends are almost wild at the awful result of the happening.

Mrs. Layden was known over the city as a nurse, and when Miss Mary Collins, residing across the street, was attacked by fever, she was among the first to offer her assistance. So careful was she in her attendance that the patient soon began to recover, but her trial had been so painful that nervous prostration followed the fever. This necessitated the greatest care in nursing, and Mrs. Layden allowed no unnecessary noise. Late Saturday afternoon the nurse found it necessary to heat some alcohol, and placing half a pint of the inflammable liquid in a tin can she held it over the grate. She had held it there but a few minutes when a flash sprang from the mouth of the can, enveloping Mrs. Layden in flame. Then the character of the doomed woman came to the surface. She knew that unnecessary noise might cost Miss Collins her life, and without attempting to extinguish the fire she walked from the room, and then ran into the yard. So painful had the burns become that she began to scream loudly upon reaching the door, and her cries were heard by Charles Gallagher, a neighbor who was working in the yard. Realizing in an instant that the breeze was fanning the flame, and every moment was but adding to the danger of the burning woman, he caught up a piece of oil cloth, and hastily wrapping it around Mrs. Layden's burning form, ran for other material. A blanket and a piece of canvas were quickly added to the coverings and the flames were extinguished. Help was summoned and the woman carried to her home across the street, fully conscious of what had happened. Doctor Ogden and Doctor Toot were called, and soon decided that she could not live. An examination of the injuries showed that she was burned from head to foot, and had inhaled some of the flame. The flesh was burned to a crisp, and she suffered untold agonies during the hours that she lived. The unfortunate woman was conscious almost all the time, but bore the intense suffering with quiet fortitude, never permitting her feelings to overcome the iron will which lay so firmly under the usually quiet demeanor. At 10:50 o'clock Sunday morning the end came, and without a struggle the spirit fled from the burned semblance of the frame it had occupied for 26 years.

Mrs. Layden was the only daughter of James Hanlon, Sr., and was well known to a great many people in the city. When 22 years of age she was married to Harry Layden, a potter of this city. He was the founder of the Brotherhood of Operative Potters, but did not live long to enjoy the fruits of his labor, his death occurring in a year and a half after his marriage. One son was born to the couple, and he is left to mourn the death of his unfortunate mother. She also had four brothers, James, Joseph, Samuel and Edward, all residents of the city, except the last named. He is married and lives in Tiffin, but when the news reached him he at once took the train for Rochester. Finding that he could not get a train from that place to this city he secured a carriage, and drove overland, but arrived here a few minutes after his sister had died. The family are broken hearted over the ending of the accident.

Mrs. Layden was a devout Catholic, and has for years been connected with St. Aloysius church. She was an active worker, and was largely instrumental in organizing the League of the Sacred Heart. Since the death of her husband she has devoted a large portion of her life in nursing the sick, and her name is known in many humble homes of the city where she watched with untiring care, and without hope of earthly reward. Arrangements for the funeral have been completed, and services will be held in St. Aloysius at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning. The remains will be interred in the Catholic cemetery.

The motemen are thankful that no cars were near when the rock rolled, but can not help believing there are others on the hill side that may decide to move at any time.

Saved His Hand.

Harvey Plankinton, of Sixth street, was dissecting a quarter of beef this morning, when the saw slipped and cut a gash in his hand. The wound was a bad one, and required two stitches to repair the damage.

BARBERS IN DANGER

Not Safe to Expose a Blacklist to View.

AN EXPERT OPINION GIVEN

One Lawyer Says That They Can Have a Blacklist, but They Must Keep It To Themselves—Another Advises That It Is Dangerous to Hang It Up.

It is possible that the barbers who have exposed the blacklist for the inspection of the public will have an opportunity to answer for the rash act in court.

Some persons, whose names are on the list, were highly indignant when they heard of the move of their creditors, and it was freely stated on Saturday afternoon that suits might result. An able attorney was questioned by the NEWS REVIEW, and he gave the opinion that the barbers were safe in having a blacklist so long as they refrained from showing it to any person not in the business of barbering. The minute it was given to the public they came under the law, and could be made to pay the penalty in the recovery of damages. Some barbers knew this, and refrained from hanging the list in their shops.

Another prominent attorney who investigated the law gave as his opinion that there was no special statute governing the matter, but he would advise the barbers to keep those lists off the wall, as it is dangerous, to say the least.

Captured the Peeper.

When Officers Wyman and Supplee were walking in the neighborhood of Franklin street on Saturday night they spied the individual who has been annoying residents by peeping in the windows. The fellow ran and one of the officers went after him, Officer Wyman following him to Bauman's saloon on Sixth street. When the officer entered the man was about to drink, but after he had swallowed the beer he was accused of "peeping." After a firm denial he acknowledged, and promised never to do it again. Officer Wyman advising him that a loaded shot gun was awaiting a repetition of the offense, and he would hate to see the fellow's head scattered over the ground.

Presented With a Cane.

On the evening of March 8 Rev. J. N. Swan was made the recipient of a valuable gold headed cane, the officers and members of the Island Creek church wishing to show some token of respect and appreciation of his valuable volunteer services during the early part of the winter as well as some pastoral work in the congregation. Beautifully engraved on the cane are the words "presented to Rev. J. N. Swan by the officers of the Island Creek church." Rev. J. P. Leyenberger made the presentation speech. The audience was large.

Officer Supplee Wants a Name.

Officer Supplee got a letter this morning of three and one-half pages, and read enough of it to know that the writer wanted him to investigate some sidewalk obstructions. Prompted by a desire to know who took this method of addressing him, the officer glanced at the ending, and finding no name, threw the letter into a waste basket. He wants the public to know that he has no dealings with men who are afraid to sign their names, and will pay no attention to anonymous communications.

Charged With Forgery.

A piano tuner named Lewton was arrested in Wellsville last Saturday evening, and locked up until this morning when Marshall Sayer came from Coshocton and took him to that place today. He is charged with forgery, but the exact nature of the crime is unknown. Lewton operated extensively in this city, and was well known among people who have employed him. He was here for some time, but traveled through the surrounding country when trade was dull in town.

Delaney Won.

A crowd of East Liverpool people went to Wellsville on Saturday night for the purpose of seeing Delaney, the skater, beat Morrow in a race of one mile. Delaney was in good condition, and made a splendid appearance as he rolled around the rink, keeping just far enough from his opponent to make him believe that he had a winning chance. When the last lap was ended Delaney was a half ahead of Morrow who seemed to be skating his best. The race was for $25.

Someone Broke the Law.

The attention of a NEWS REVIEW reporter was called on Saturday evening to three boys from this city boarding a car for Wellsville. Each was about 17 years old, and had been drinking so much that he was under the influence of liquor. From remarks made by the trio it was evident that they feared some one would recognize them in town, and they were going to Wellsville for more. They returned on one of the late cars in about the same condition. Who broke the law?

Raised the Pacific.

Two boats with a large number of men worked on the Pacific all of yesterday, and toward evening succeeded in raising the damaged craft. She is being pumped out today and will be taken to Pittsburgh tonight. The damage is greater than was expected.

A steam shovel with a host of men worked yesterday removing the cargo of the barges sunk by the Onward at Walkers. The barges were floated last night, and found to be damaged but little. There is but slight loss on the cargo.

May Build in July.

The Laughlin pottery management is patiently waiting for the city and the street railway company to come to terms so that the ground on the river front now occupied by the electric line can be filled with the proposed kilns. There will be no controversy with the company so far as the pottery is concerned, but the plans, it is understood, will be disarranged, if the ground is not vacant in July. Council should not delay an improvement.

Formed a Scale.

A special from Trenton last night says:

"The sanitary pottery operatives of the United States met here today in the potters' national headquarters and formulated a new constitution and by-laws for the Operatives' Protective association formed last week. The new constitution obliterates the individual contract system, fixes a uniform scale of wages and prohibits manufacturers from taking on more apprentices."

Captured in Rochester.

Early yesterday morning two boys named Croxall and Hayden decided that home no longer held any attractions for them, and decided to run away. Charles Hayden and Thomas Croxall, fathers of the pair, discovered that they had gone east, and telegraphed the chief of police at Rochester to detain them should they come to that place. This morning word came that the runaways had been captured, and Mr. Croxall went after them.

Must Cage the Chickens.

East End people have been so annoyed with chickens running at large that complaint was made at the mayor's office this morning. Mayor Gilbert decided that scratching chickens were a nuisance, and ordered that as no charge had been made he could do nothing but warn W. E. Finney and Mr. Prudence that they must cage their chickens, or suffer the consequences.

A Burglar, Perhaps.

When Mrs. John Anderson, residing on Broadway, stepped into the hall from her room on Saturday night she discovered a well-dressed young man crouching at the top of the stairs. She thought for a moment it was one of the family, but finding her error, ordered the fellow out of the house. He walked quietly away until the alley was reached, and then he ran.

Republicans Meet Tonight.

The Republican central committee will meet tonight at city hall and every member is expected to be present. The lists will close at 8 o'clock this evening, but as yet the roll is not complete. Among the most important declarations filed today is that of Oliver Vodrey for council in the First ward.

Will Go to Missouri.

Mrs. J. D. West, whose son Harry is lying at the point of death in Kansas City, Mo., will leave tomorrow for that city, although the latest news, a telegram received last night, said that he had rallied from his sinking spell. Mr. West has been with his son several weeks.

A Quiet Wedding.

Mr. James Price and Miss Eliza Robinson were quietly married last evening at the parsonage of the First Methodist Episcopal church by Doctor Huston. For the present they will reside at the home of the bride's parents, the Hilbert House.

Bunched the Cars.

When Motorman Stodgill attempted to move his car off the Sixth street switch he found that the armature was locked. Before the defect could be repaired cars were bunched, and traffic delayed.

BURNED TO A CRISP

The Awful Death of Mrs. Ellen
B. Layden.

A CAN OF ALCOHOL FLASHED

And the Nurse Was Enveloped In the Destroying Flame—Fearing to Alarm Her Patient, She Ran Into the Yard and Found Help—She Was the Widow of the Man Who Founded the Potters' Brotherhood.

When Mrs. Ellen B. Layden was heating a can of alcohol late Saturday afternoon the liquid took fire, and today a burned and blackened corpse lies in a Lincoln avenue home, while sorrowing friends are almost wild at the awful result of the happening.

Mrs. Layden was known over the city as a nurse, and when Miss Mary Collins, residing across the street, was attacked by fever, she was among the first to offer her assistance. So careful was she in her attendance that the patient soon began to recover, but her trial had been so painful that nervous prostration followed the fever. This necessitated the greatest care in nursing, and Mrs. Layden allowed no unnecessary noise. Late Saturday afternoon the nurse found it necessary to heat some alcohol, and placing half a pint of the inflammable liquid in a tin can she held it over the grate. She had held it there but a few minutes when a flash sprang from the mouth of the can, enveloping Mrs. Layden in flame. Then the character of the doomed woman came to the surface. She knew that unnecessary noise might cost Miss Collins her life, and without attempting to extinguish the fire she walked from the room, and then ran into the yard. So painful had the burns become that she began to scream loudly upon reaching the door, and her cries were heard by Charles Gallagher, a neighbor who was working in the yard. Realizing in an instant that the breeze was fanning the flame, and every moment was but adding to the danger of the burning woman, he caught up a piece of oil cloth, and hastily wrapping it around Mrs. Layden's burning form, ran for other material. A blanket and a piece of canvas were quickly added to the coverings and the flames were extinguished. Help was summoned and the woman carried to her home across the street, fully conscious of what had happened. Doctor Ogden and Doctor Toot were called, and soon decided that she could not live. An examination of the injuries showed that she was burned from head to foot, and had inhaled some of the flame. The flesh was burned to a crisp, and she suffered untold agonies during the hours that she lived. The unfortunate woman was conscious almost all the time, but bore the intense suffering with quiet fortitude, never permitting her feelings to overcome the iron will which lay so firmly under the usually quiet demeanor. At 10:50 o'clock Sunday morning the end came, and without a struggle the spirit fled from the burned semblance of the frame it had occupied for 26 years.

Mrs. Layden was the only daughter of James Hanlon, Sr., and was well known to a great many people in the city. When 22 years of age she was married to Harry Layden, a potter of this city. He was the founder of the Brotherhood of Operative Potters, but did not live long to enjoy the fruits of his labor, his death occurring in a year and a half after his marriage. One son was born to the couple, and he is left to mourn the death of his unfortunate mother. She also had four brothers, James, Joseph, Samuel and Edward, all residents of the city, except the last named. He is married and lives in Tiffin, but when the news reached him he at once took the train for Rochester. Finding that he could not get a train from that place to this city he secured a carriage, and drove overland, but arrived here a few minutes after his sister had died. The family are broken hearted over the ending of the accident.

Mrs. Layden was a devout Catholic, and has for years been connected with St. Aloysius church. She was an active worker, and was largely instrumental in organizing the League of the Sacred Heart. Since the death of her husband she has devoted a large portion of her life in nursing the sick, and her name is known in many humble homes of the city where she watched with untiring care, and without hope of earthly reward. Arrangements for the funeral have been completed, and services will be held in St. Aloysius at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning. The remains will be interred in the Catholic cemetery

CHINA READY TO ACCEPT.

A Willingness to Sign the Treaty Con-

Through U. S. Ministers Dun and Denby

—It's Severe Rebuke.

TOKIO, March 11.—China has been informed in general terms of the conditions upon which Japan will consent to peace. Japan has been notified that China is ready to accept these conditions and to sign a treaty.

The correspondence, by means of which this agreement was arrived at,

was carried on through the United States ministers to the two countries—

Minister Edwin Dun at Tokio and Minister Charles Denby at Peking.

ITO'S SEVERE REBUKE.

He Told the First Envoy That China

Was Insincere.

LONDON, March 11.—Official copies of the notes passing between the peace envoy of China and Japan, together with translated copies of the credentials of the envoys, have been received in this city. The credentials given by the emperor to the Japanese commissioners

read as follows:

"With a view to the restoration of peace between our empire and that of China, in order to maintain the peace of the Orient, we, reposing special trust and confidence in Count Ito Hirobumi, Junii, Grand Cross of the Imperial Order of Paulownia, our minister president of state, and Viscount Mutsu

Munemitsu, Junii, first class of the Imperial Order of the Sacred Treasure, our minister of state for foreign affairs and having full knowledge of their wisdom and ability, do hereby name them as our plenipotentiaries. We have given to our plenipotentiaries full powers to meet and treat, either separately or conjointly, with the plenipotenentiaries of China, and to conclude and sign preliminaries of peace. We shall examine all stipulations, which our said plenipotentiaries may agree upon and, finding such stipulations proper and in good and due form, we shall ratify them."

The credentials given by the Chinese emperor to the Chinese commissioners read as follows: "We decree, we do appoint Chang Yen Hoon, holding the rank of president of a board, minister of the Tsung-Li-Yamen, and junior

vice president of the board of revenue,

and Shao Yu Lien, an officer of the bu-

tion of the first rank and acting governor of Hunan, as our plenipotentiaries to meet and negotiate the matter with the plenipotentiaries appointed by Japan. You will, however, telegraph to

the Tsung-Li-Yamen for the purpose of obtaining our commands, by which you will abide."

The Japanese government sent word

to the Chinese commissioners, asking

them whether the above credentials gave them full power to treat. The reply was:

"We beg to state in reply that our

commissions, handed to you at the same time in exchange, embody full powers

given by our imperial majesty for the

negotiation and conclusion of peace,

with authority to conclude articles to that end and to sign them. In order to insure the more prompt execution of the treaty, we may agree upon, we shall write the terms for imperial sanction and fix the date for signature, after

which the same shall be taken to China

for examination by his imperial Chinese majesty, and being proper and in good

and due form will be ratified."

When the commissioners met Count

Ito informed the Chinese officials that

instances had been known where China had deliberately refused to sanction international compacts solemnly entered into. Consequently the imperial government made it a condition precedent

to any peace negotiations, that the Chinese plenipotentiaries should be furnished with full power to conclude

peace, but their powers were, notwith-

BRIGHT FOR THE STRIKERS.

Some Coal Operators Concede 69 Cents—

A Meeting Today.

PITTSBURG, March 11.—The outlook

for the miners winning the strike is very bright.

A special meeting of the Railroad

Coal Operators' association is being held in the rooms of the association today

for the purpose of examining into the cause which led up to a number of the members of the association conceding

the demands of the miners and paying

69 cents, thus spoiling their chances for victory over their employees. The W. P.

P. Rend and Munhall Coal companies are the latest reported to concede their

men the price, and the miners' officials

say today will bring out a half dozen

others who want to get coal out.

W. P. Bonney of the W. L. Scott

company was seen at the Monongahela

house, but said he could not tell definately what action his company would take in the matter of conceding the demand. He appeared rather unwilling to talk on the subject and would not say whether or not he thought the 69-

cent rate would be general before the week just begun is over.

Some of the miners' officials hint that

the meeting of the association today is

for the purpose of requesting a conference with the miners in order to settle

the matter up as easily as possible, but

the members of the association repudi-

ate the idea, saying they are perfectly satisfied to let the matter go along as it

now stands. A number of large miners'

meetings are scheduled for the early part of the week.

Miller's Run Coal company and the

Cherry mines on Saturday agreed to pay

the 69-cent rate. They employ in all about 700 men.

Cuban Rebels Defeated.

MADRID, March 11.—Dispatches received here from Cuba state that after their defeat by the government troops at Baire and Los Negros the rebels occupied the positions in which the government troops again attacked and dispersed them, inflicting heavy loss.

Matagosa's band now consists of only a few stragglers. The insurgents at Zavalones have also been defeated with the loss of one killed and seven wounded.

10,000 Men Quit Work.

LONDON, March 11.—In consequence of the action of the members of the National Federation of Boot Manufacturers in notifying their operatives to stop work on March 16, owing to complicated dispute concerning the use of machinery and over other matters, the shoe operatives union has retaliated by calling out all the operatives who are not obliged to give a week's notice.

Don't Contemplate Strikes.

CHICAGO, March 11.—The Switchmen's Mutual Aid association, of which Charles Booty was elected president at the last meeting, met Sunday evening with 402 members present. The new constitution was adopted, the most important feature of which is the entire omission of anything which may be construed as countenancing strikes.

American Prospectors Robbed.

SIERRA MOJADA, Mex., March 11.—

Frank Ward and H. D. Sample, two American prospectors who left here a few weeks ago for the new mining camp of Carmen, near the Rio Grande border, have been attacked by a band of Mexican outlaws and robbed of their money and horses. The outlaws escaped across the river into Texas.

Better Times Prevail.

TOPEKA, Kan., March 11.—That better times prevail in western Kansas is evidenced by the fact that 12 counties have notified Governor Morrill they are in need of no further outside aid. The legislature had appropriated $100,000 to distribute among the destitute in this and other western counties.

MORE DEMOCRAT PROSPERITY.

A farm containing 160 acres of land was sold near Cannon's Mills one day last week, and the owner almost died of excitement when he found that the purchaser was willing to pay $40 an acre. Not long ago that same land would have brought no less than $10 an acre more than was paid, and the farmer would have realized the full value of his investment. There is but one reason for the low price, and that was produced by Democracy.
Money is scarce, land is abundant, wheat is low, and other products go begging. The farmer wanting money can not realize it from his crop, and he quietly sells, knowing full well that he is not getting what his land is worth. This is but additional proof of the Democratic prevarication of two years ago. The farmers were promised big prices for wheat, anything in reason that they wanted for wheat, and a steady advancement in the value of their farms, but the pledges came to naught. There has been Democratic prosperity all over the land for a space of two years, and it has been the most costly of luxuries.

Moved His Store.

L. H. Schaffer, who has been in the grocery business on Fourth street, has moved to the Burgess building on Third street. Mr. Schaffer desires to thank the public for the splendid patronage he enjoyed at his old stand, and is anxious to welcome them in his new store. Only the best of goods in stock.

rank of president of a board, minister
of the Tsung-Li-Yamen, and junior
vice president of the board of revenue,
and Shao Yu Lien, an officer of the button of the first rank and acting governor of Hunan, as our plenipotentiaries
to meet and negotiate the matter with
the plenipotentiaries appointed by Japan. You will, however, telegraph to
the Tsung-Li-Yamen for the purpose of
obtaining our commands, by which you
will abide."

The Japanese government sent word
to the Chinese commissioners, asking
them whether the above credentials
gave them full power to treat. The reply was:

"We beg to state in reply that our
commissions, handed to you at the same
time in exchange, embody full powers
given by our imperial majesty for the
negotiation and conclusion of peace,
with authority to conclude articles to
that end and to sign them. In order to insure the more prompt execution of the treaty we may agree upon, we shall wire the terms for imperial sanction
and fix the date for signature, after
which the same shall be taken to China
for examination by his imperial Chinese
majesty, and being proper and in good
and due form will be ratified."

When the commissioners met Count
Ito informed the Chinese officials that
instances had been known where China
had deliberately refused to sanction international compacts solemnly entered into. Consequently the imperial government made it a condition, precedent
to any peace negotiations, that the Chinese plenipotentiaries should be furnished with full power to conclude
peace, but their powers were, notwithstanding that assurance, fatally defective, a sure indication that the government of China was not yet really solicitous for peace. Then said he:

"Criticism is nearly exhausted by a comparison of the two instruments which were reciprocally exchanged at this board yesterday, but it is not out of place to point out that one fulfilled the definition which is usually given among civilized states to the term full powers, while the other is destitute of nearly all those qualities which are regarded as essential to such powers; it even fails to indicate the subject upon which your excellencies are to negotiate; it does not authorize your excellencies to conclude or sign anything, it is silent on the subject of the subsequent imperial ratification of your excellencies' action. In short it would seem that the authority which has been conferred upon your excellencies would be completely fulfilled by your reporting to your government what my colleague and myself might have to say. In this situation it would be impossible for us to continue negotiations."

BRIGHT FOR THE STRIKERS.

Some Coal Operators Concede 60 Cents—
A Meeting Today.

PITTSBURGH, March 11.—The outlook for the miners winning the strike is
very bright.
A special meeting of the Railroad
Coal Operators' association is being held
in the rooms of the association today
for the purpose of examining into the
cause which led up to a number of the members of the association conceding
the demands of the miners and paying 60 cents, thus spoiling their chances for victory over their employees. The W.
P. Rend and Munhall Coal companies
are the latest reported to concede their
men the price, and the miners' officials
say today will bring out a half dozen
others who want to get coal out.

W. P. Bonney of the W. L. Scott
company was seen at the Monongahela
house, but said he could not tell definitely what action his company would take in the matter of conceding the demand. He appeared rather unwilling
to talk on the subject and would not
say whether or not he thought the 60-
cent rate would be general before the week just began is over.
Some of the miners' officials hint that
the meeting of the association today is
for the purpose of requesting a conference with the miners in order to settle
the matter up as easily as possible, but
the members of the association repudi-
ate the idea, saying they are perfectly
satisfied to let the matter go along as it
now stands. A number of large miners'
meetings are scheduled for the early part of this week.

Miller's Run Coal company and the Cherry mines on Saturday agreed to pay
the 60-cent rate. They employ in all
about 700 men.

Cuban Rebels Defeated.

MADRID, March 11.—Dispatches received here from Cuba state that after their defeat by the government troops at Baure and Los Negros the rebels oc-

ernment troops again attacked and dispersed them, inflicting heavy loss.
Matanzas' hand now consists of only a few stragglers. The insurgents at Zavallos have also been defeated with the loss of one killed and seven wounded.

SCHOOL BUILDING BURNED.

An Explosion Followed by Fire in the Toledo High School.

TOLEDO, March 11.—The Toledo high school building, a 4-story brick structure, occupying the square bounded by Madison, Adams, Michigan and Tenth streets, and one of the best appointed educational institutions in this part of the country, was almost completely destroyed by fire early this morning. It was a little before 1 o'clock when a loud explosion, that blew out part of the east wing of the building, startled the few pedestrians who happened to be on the street.

A moment later fire burst forth from the heart of the structure and spread so rapidly that before an alarm could be given, the main portion of the building was doomed. The entire fire department was called out and managed to save the Scott Manual Training department, which is situated at the north end of the building. The explosion probably was caused by chemicals in the laboratory. The loss is estimated at $150,000 with what insurance is not known.

is president and A. M. McCarty of Canton secretary.

liquor traffic, the free coinage of silver and the tariff questions will likely receive the most attention. Secretary Swager says the letters received indicate that these three questions, along with the party name, will receive the most attention.

The Tontogany Murder Mystery.

TOLEDO, March 11.—The Tontogany murder mystery is still as much of a mystery as ever. Dr. Eddmon has been released from custody and has returned to Tontogany. Miss Hartings was arraigned and entered a plea of not guilty.
Miss Hartings asserts her innocence, committal. Her fondness for Dr. Eddmon and her hatred of the dead woman which implicates her.

not give an opinion as to the probability of trouble.

EIGHT MEN ENTOMBED.

Escape Cut Off by a Burning Hoist House.

PROBABLY SUFFOCATED BY FIRE.

A Fearful Mine Disaster in New Mexico. Rescuing Parties Unable to Reach the Missing Miners—Four Escape—One Has a Thrilling Experience.

WHITE OAK, N. M., March 11.—Fire broke out in the change room of the hoist house of the Old Abe mine and in a few minutes the structure, a large and well-built one, was a mass of flames. It was completely destroyed, together with the wood and smith shops. The mill, 60 feet away, escaped without damage. The woodwork of the shaft was burned out and the hoisting machine destroyed. The damage runs high up into the thousands, but the most distressing feature is that some men are imprisoned in the dark depths whose fate is unknown. There is little ground for hope that they have escaped suffocation. Rescuing parties have been unable as yet to get down further than the third level by the shaft. The smoke and gases from the charred wood of the hoist shaft have penetrated the upper levels and it is impossible to pass them.

The entombed men are: Charles Sherrick, F. J. Williams, Frank Wilson, John Davis, G. Baxter, White, Jerry Conover and W. B. Mitchell. The fire broke out while G. E. Wilkinson was going down in the bucket to work. He had reached the ninth level when the hoist was abandoned and was shot down 200 feet to the thirteenth level, where the bucket struck, tipped and threw him into the drift. He was stunned, but recovered and climbed back to the second level and escaped by the air shaft. Coke Keith, Mike Gallagher and Anton Howgate escaped through the air shaft.

For the Corbett-Fitzsimmons Fight. KANSAS CITY, March 11.—G. Wilhelm, president of the Kremlin (O. T.) Sporting club, writes to a local paper that he is authorized by the Kremlin Sporting club and the citizens of that town to offer a purse of $35,000 for the Corbett-Fitzsimmons fight. This is a raise of $10,000 over the Perry bid. The sports of Oklahoma seem to be satisfied that the council now in session at Guthrie will pass the bill permitting glove contests that was passed by the house last week, and that if the governor does not sign the bill, he will not veto it, but permit it to become operative without his signature.

Oranges For McKinley. LOS ANGELES, March 11.—The chairman of the chamber of commerce of Los Angeles offered a special prize at the citrus fair a gold medal worth $50 for the best box of oranges grown in Southern California. A number of entries were made, and a committee of carefully selected judges assigned the prize to G. W. Prescott for a box of navel, grown in Highland. The oranges were auctioned off and the sum of $25 was realized from the sale. The fruit will be sent to Governor McKinley of Ohio.

Attempt to Wreck a Train. VALPARAISO, Ind., March 11.—An attempt has been made to wreck a passenger train on the New York, Chicago and St. Louis railroad about five miles west of this city. A pile of ties had been placed on the track, which was struck with great force by the engine, knocking it from the track and plowing up the track for about 200 yards before the train could be stopped. The passengers were all thrown from their seats, but no one injured. It is supposed to have been the work of train robbers.

Terms of the Settlement. PARIS, March 11.—The terms of the settlement of the difficulty between San Domingo and France provide for the payment of a million francs for the illegal detention of Captain Boimere, and 225,000 francs for the murder of Cacavelli, a French naval officer. Naval honors will be paid to the murdered man by the French and Italian ministers. The remaining question in dispute, which is of minor importance, will be settled through the Spanish minister, who is acting as arbitrator.

A Novel Suit Succeeds. BIRMINGHAM, March 11.—At Vernon, Lamar county, the Southern Express company got a verdict for $4,400 against Allen Burrows, father of the late Rube Burrows, the noted train robber, and administrator of his son's estate. The verdict covers the amount Rube got from the express company's cars in his raids during a period of nine years, and the court gave a general charge in the case.

First American Vessel in Fifteen Years. WASHINGTON, March 11.—The American consul at Bergen, Norway, reports that for the first time in 15 years an American vessel, the ship Hamilton Fish, built in 1856, of 1,935 tons, was entered and cleared from that port.

Ripans Tablets for sour stomach.

At the Grand. The largest audience of the season heard the Corse Payton company at the Grand on Saturday night. The Norris Bros., with their wonderful aggregation of dogs and ponies, will be at the Grand tonight. Uncle Tom has been whipped to death a hundred times in East Liverpool, but he refuses to remain dead, and will return with his cabin on March 21. The play will be presented at the Grand by the Davis company, and if preceding Uncle Toms count for anything, Manager Orr had better begin to think of enlarging the theater.

No One Saw It. If there was an eclipse of the moon last night, no one in East Liverpool saw it. The sky was clear during the morning and early in the afternoon, but toward 4 o'clock the clouds began to gather, and when the hour for the shadow came the sky was overcast. It remained in this condition during the evening, effectually shutting out any view of the beautiful sight. Some disappointment was expressed, but the number of persons interested was not large enough to diminish the attendance at the churches.

Colonel Baine Tomorrow. Colonel Baine, one of the most eloquent speakers on the American platform, will be the next number in the Young Men's Christian association lecture course. The gentleman will talk on "Boys and Girls, Naughty and Nice," the subject giving ample scope for the vast store of wit which he carries around in his well formed head. The lecture is the last of the course, and gives promise of being attended by a large audience.

Rev. Anna Shaw. Rev. Anna H. Shaw will lecture in the Methodist Protestant church on Friday, March 15, at 8 p. m. Subject, "The Fate of Republics." No charge for admission. A collection will be taken.

THE NATIONAL GAME.

Liverpool Baseballists Sign With the New England League. Manager Leonard, of the New England League, has forwarded a blank contract to Grant Myler, of this city, and it will be returned with the Liverpool man's signature this week, thus settling the question as to where he will play. Rather, it only settles the speculation as to his engagement with the Twin City team, as Myler does not know which team in the league wants him. The various clubs in the New England league are drawing their players by a sort of lottery this year and only decided on Friday last whom they would sign. The assignment of players to their positions will take place in a few days.

Alf Shaw and "Nibbo" Carey will not wear the Twin City uniform this season. They have signed contracts like the one Myler received and forwarded them to the New England league. They expect to hear tomorrow from the association as to what teams they will play with and will be more than pleased if by chance the pair are assigned places in the same club.

Thomas Twaddle is another East Liverpool baseballist who will not remain at home this season. He has signed a contract with the Urichsville club and will hold down a place in the field.

The friends of First Baseman "Toadix" Carey, who secured a plum from those which dropped off the tree of the pennant winners, predict success for him, both during the Baltimore's southern tour and in the battles royal. He reports to the captain of the Orioles in Macon, Georgia, for duty today.

Although little is being done in the line of organization of G. W. Meredith's base ball team, which is intended to make a name for the Ceramic City this season, those interested claim the club will come and negotiations are steadily going on. Something more definite is expected soon.

Curt Welch has signed another Syracuse contract, and will play in the Eastern league this season. He behaved himself so well last season, and put up such a good game that he was expected to find a place in the National league. He is the pet of Syracuse.

Borrowed the Remainder. Two youngsters, the hopefuls of a Seventh street family, started for the opera house on Saturday night with 75 cents, expecting to pay 20 cents each for a seat. On the way they spent 10 cents for peanuts, but upon arriving at the theater they discovered that there were no seats at this price, 30 cents being what the ticket man demanded. They clutched their finances, and coming to the conclusion that two times 30 made more than 65, they walked to the home of their grandfather, and the little girl stood on the outside while her brother went in and borrowed 20 cents. Happy in the possession of this amount, they returned to the opera house and were surprised to find a surplus in cash. They are near relations of a well-known pottery salesman, and expect to use the remainder of their cash in a trip to Chicago when next he goes.

A 'Cycle Club. Six of the kilnhands at the Laughlin pottery have ordered new bicycles, and will have an association among themselves this season. They are securing their pneumatic steeds with a view of taking a trip over the Allegheny mountains during the usual July loaf. It is whispered that one or more of the riders will be entered in some of the big road races, and the club will be able to assist them into possible victory. The Liverpool riders were handicapped in last year's Press road race because they had no friends along the way, but will have an easier job the next time, and a chance to show the kind of material in their construction.

Local authorities on 'cycling matters say that there is a possibility of the resurrection of the Ceramic City 'Cycle club this season, as a canvass shows many wheelmen willing and even anxious to have such an organization.

A Word For Witzman. "That mystery at Leetonia will never be cleared up," said a traveling man who has recently been in that place on Saturday night. "In my opinion the man Conkle was murdered, and done by people who knew all about his actions and mode of living, but they have been so careful in their movements that the officers are baffled, and don't know where to turn next. All this talk about new evidence amounts to nothing in the minds of some prominent people over there. One man who has watched the case from the start told me that in his belief the officers were dealing with the shrewdest murderers he had ever heard of. He did not think the right parties are even suspected."

Notice, Dippers. Members of Dippers local union No. 15 will meet in Red Men's hall on Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Full attendance desired, as there is important business. By order of PRESIDENT.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Al Burford, a daughter.

The News Review gives its readers more local news than any other daily in the county.

The streets were crowded with people on Saturday night, and merchants reaped the benefit of a good business.

Albert Webster has secured a position in the city, and will move his family here from Beaver Falls next week.

Reverend Grimes, of the Allegheny seminary, occupied the pulpit at the Second United Presbyterian church yesterday.

The ferry boat was moving today after a rest continuing since the river froze over. Some of the machinery was injured.

The little son of George Buckley, who was so badly burned last Wednesday about the face and body, is somewhat better, although he continues to suffer excruciating pain.

The Midway was the scene of a warm war of words late Saturday night, and an expectant crowd waited about for some time expecting to see a battle, but were disappointed.

Word was received Saturday evening by Mrs. J. D. West, Robinson street, that her son Harry, who has been ill in Kansas City, Mo., was slowly sinking and his demise it was feared would be a matter of but a few days.

East Liverpool people going to Wellsville on Saturday night were treated to a lecture on obedience from an old man who, although under the influence of liquor, told the crowd of young people in the car some plain truths.

There was a lively little battle in an alley near Fifth street on Saturday night, the outcome of a quarrel at the rink because of a young girl. The participants each got a few blows, while the small crowd of witnesses enjoyed the fun.

The average housekeeper smiles again for the price of eggs has fallen a few cents, the good article, so scarce a few weeks ago, having become comparatively plentiful. Dealers who paid 30 cents for eggs and had some on hand Saturday came out at the little end of the horn.

A meeting of Young Men's Christian association boys will likely be called this week for the purpose of organizing a base ball club for the season. The boys have a lot of good material from which to draw, and it is expected that the best team of the city will be put in the field.

But little has been done of late in the matter of soliciting for subscriptions to the Potters' Building and Hall company, or rather little progress has been made by those engaged in the work. The idleness of so many operatives is a serious obstacle to the immediate success of the company's plans.

An error was made in the announcement in Saturday's issue that Miss Ella McBurney, the elocutionist, had been secured for Thursday evening next by the East End Charity club. The talented young lady will appear at the Second United Presbyterian church on that date under the auspices of the Young People's society.

It now seems next to an assured fact that an East Liverpool man will be a candidate for commissioner. The withdrawal of some of the anxious ones has caused the belief that the vote in the northern part of the county will be more complicated than ever, thus giving an East Liverpool man who can carry the city an opportunity to slip in.

Early yesterday morning the residence of A. J. Cartwright was found to be on fire, and a few firemen were called to the scene, no alarm being sent into the station. After cutting away a little of the weather boarding, the blaze was located in the wall back of a grate and was extinguished. As fires always come three at a time, there must be another to complete the series now running.

Reverend Whitehead attracted a large crowd at the Methodist Protestant church last evening by the announcement that he would preach upon the moral character of candidates. The speaker touched upon the qualifications of good municipal officers, and urged that only men with the best of intentions and a firm will to resist breaking away from the path of duty should be supported by the people wanting a good government. He also paid a splendid tribute to officials who did what was right.

When asked about the plans of the Populists for the coming election a man who took an active part in the Coxy movement last fall told a News Review reporter that he would have nothing to do with it this year. "I am not a Populist," he said, "if Senator Peffer defined the principles of the party in Canton as the leaders believe them. I was a Coxy man because I believed Coxy wanted to give the workingman something good, but I have lost that belief lately. He seems to be looking out for Coxy first, and the rest of us afterward."
